The first witness called by the defense was another red-headed youth, Charles Henry Sykes, an artist, at present living in Philadelphia. Be said he was just past twenty, when he met her three years ago, and that she took him to the races for the first time in his life. He said that he met her at Miss May Gulick's hearding-house at Nos. 9 to 13 South Oxford street, Brooklyn, where he and two other boys had a large room and studio. She lived there, and they had very pleasant and proper times, he declared.

THE STAKE IN JAMAICA MUD

Great way for the Mudders and Only the Regulars Turn Out.

SAM H. HARRIS WINS

Get-Away-Day Brings the Regulars Out to Brave Rain and Wind.

Easy for Royal Breeze. going immensely and, fidden by O'Nell, who got a bad fall in the last yesterday on Banasa, romped home the east gest of whiners. George S. Davis, always prominent got a good ride from "Tommy" Hurns, finishing second after making a fruitless effort to oversaul the Breeze mudder. Dumfound galloped in the benefit for the San Francisco sufferers, which takes place at Madison Square Garden on Saturday night. His prearance at this benefit is very aproto the show coin to the consternation of the bettors, who figured him an outsider. Gray Day, emblematic of weather conditions, got a life from the pikers, but like Wilson, "that's all."

The players of the favorite. Lord Badge, in the second race received a joit when the webbing went aloft showing Badge standing still, absolutely left. Only the other day at the same starting spot, beneath the eyes of the spectures Starter Classity left the favorite, Mary Morris, as if she were rooted to the spot, Greenland was off well and took up the running and led to the stretch, with Sam H. Harris, Bowling Bridge and Society Bud showing the way to the others. In that way they splashed halfway up the stretch, when Harris, forging to the front, won easily, King Cole, who was off almost last, worked through the branch and came a slam-bang second under Miller's clever guidance. Mary Morris had to be content with third.

Good Ride for Notter.

Good Ride for Notter. Notter's good riding of Masaniello in the third steered the Kingston geiding into the winning territory. Getting off badly, Notter got his mount into the first division by vigorous riding, taking the lead at the turn out of the backstretch, Good Luck having ranged alongsMs. Chimney Sweep, coming from behind, made his bid, but the fight remained betwee nMasantello and Good Luck. The latter got his head in front with the boy "Jack" Martin riding an apparently winning emblem. But Masantello came under whip and hand to the Luck horse, failing in this way to respond. Masaniello got home by a half length, Chimney Sweep being several behind Good Luck.

Starter Cassidy was more successful in the fourth, the Suffork States, for two-year-olds, getting the frisky youngsters off in good shape. Frank Lord was first to shew, but dropped back to fifth place. Tileing and Acrobat taking up the running to the stretch. Beetmont made the going from fourth place to second place, and looked all over a contender, but he tired at the sixteenth, giving way to Acrobat, which came again. Tileing galloped right on about his horse business and won by two lengths from Acrobat, which was chased in by Frank Lord. Bertmont came next.

Sue Smith was the red het one dished out with a liberal hand to romp off with the fifth, but the repast was not enjoyed by her backers after the scramble. She just couldn't beat Fustain, which the dauntless Miller rode over the aspirations of Sue Fustian was first, Sue second, and the consistent Hocus Pocus third, when the dash ended at the wire. Brushup Was Fast.

Brushup cleaned up for his backers in the final scramble of the day. He got off with Aeronaut, the favorite, and outran the up-in-the-air horse from the first few jumps, winning easily. Aero-naut beat Sterling just as easily for
